

- LIMITS OF THE PROHIBITION OF DISCRIMINATION

The constitutional order of the Slovak Republic recognizes as a generally accepted approach to ensuring the equality in rights only such deflexion from the universal apprehension of the equality (prohibition of discrimination) that has its expressive basis reacting to natural inequality between people (e.g. Art. 38 of the Constitution of the Slovak Republic).

(Finding of the Constitutional Court of the Slovak Republic Ref. No. PL. ÚS 8/04 of 18 October 2005 published in the Collection of Laws of the Slovak Republic, Title 220, under No. 539/2005)