

Constitutional Court of the Slovak Republic

Hlavná 110, 042 65 Košice 1, Slovakia

P. O. Box E - 35

Judge of the Constitutional Court of the Slovak Republic Peter Molnár attended a session of the Venice Commission

22 March 2021

On 19 and 20 March 2021, Judge of the Constitutional Court of the Slovak Republic Peter Molnár attended the session of the European Commission for Democracy through Law - Venice Commission, which due to the pandemic situation took place online. Part of the agenda for the 126th plenary session of the Venice Commission included, among other things, topics such as cooperation with the Committee of Ministers, cooperation with the Parliamentary Assembly, as well as complementing previous opinions of the Venice Commission and adoption of the Annual Activity Report for 2020.